Reception Grand Entrance / Introductions

Introductions can be performed by DJ Man Entertainment or by someone else. (Requests to change this at the reception will only be honored if given directly by the Parents to the MC.) Who will be performing the introductions? (Please circle one)

Suggested order of introductions:

- 1. Parents (usually introduced as Host and Hostess, Bob and Jane)
- 2. Siblings
- 3. Guest of Honor

(We recommend upbeat music.)

Please list those to be introduced during the grand entrance in the order they will be introduced. You can choose different songs for each person or one for the entire group. (We recommend one song for everybody.)

Name(s)	How to Introduce	Music

Candle lighting

A memory candle for deceased relative(s) may be lit by the guest of honor. Typically this is announced by the Guest of Honor, and is done either before the first candle is announced, or before the parents' candle is announced. Alternatively, one of the candles on the cake can be lit as a memory candle—this would be announced at the time of that candle. Will there be a memory candle?

Will the MC or the Guest of Honor be calling the guests up to the cake (circle one)?

Include the names of people who will be coming to the cake. Write the names as the Guest of Honor calls them (like "Aunt Rose and Uncle Bob," "Bubbe and Zayde," etc.), and include phonetic pronunciation. The usual order for candle lighting is:

1. Grandparents

5. Older relatives

9. Parents

2. Aunts

6. Younger relatives

10. Siblings

3. Uncles

7. Friends of parents

11. Guest of Honor

4. Cousins 8. Friends of Guest of Honor

The usual number of candles is 14 (13 for age, one for good luck). Try to group relatives and friends together to keep the amount of candles to 14 as best as possible. You can have interesting tidbits of information announced as the individuals come up to light the candles. If you want to do this, please write details below each person's name.

You will also need to choose music to be played while people come up and light the candles. You can have one piece of music serve as background to all of the candles, or you may want to match a specific song to each person or group of people lighting the candle (preferably fun and upbeat). The total ceremony takes about 15 minutes.

Hora

Please indicate which family members you would like to be lifted in the chair during the Hora:

Kiddush

Who will be introduced to say the Kiddush blessing? Write the name as the Guest of Honor would, and include phonetic pronunciation.

Motzi

Who will be introduced to say the Motzi blessing? Write the name as the Guest of Honor would, and include phonetic pronunciation.

ToastWho will be introduced to offer the toast to the Guest of Honor? Typically this is the father. Please write the name as the Guest of Honor.

Will there be other people offering toasts? If so, describe:

After the toast, will the Guest of Honor want to say something? This is a wonderful opportunity to welcome everyone and to do any special acknowledgements, such as guests who have traveled a long distance or friends or family who have contributed in the preparation of the ceremony or reception.

Host/Hostess Dance

Song for host/hostess dance (we recommend a slow, romantic song):

After which course (typically after 1st course):

You can have us invite your guests to join in partway through the above song, or we can invite them up when the next song begins. When do you want us to invite other guests to join in?

Guest of Honor/Parent Dance

Song for guest of honor/parent dance (we recommend a slow song, some suggestions follow):

After which course (typically after main course):

You can have us invite your guests to join in partway through the above song, or we can invite them up when the next song begins.

For some people, a special dance with a Stepfather, Uncle, Brother, or close family friend is done in lieu of, or in addition to, a parents dance. Please indicate any other special dances here:

Grand Finale

Before the last dance, we can organize guests into a circle around the guest of honor, pass the mic around, and allow them to each offer best wishes.

Do you want to do this?

Music for last dance:
